

Sinclair Broadcast Group is now instructing their 62 local stations, many in battleground states, to pre-empt regular programming to air a Kerry smear piece two weeks before the election. This unprecedented move would be direct electioneering by a corporate media giant -- and against federal election law.

Persuing partisanship rather than a broadcaster's duty to the public or even their own business interests is a unfair use of their power to communicate.